Welcome to the Bowls Website for Season 2010/2011.

The amalgamation of the RVBA and VLBA into Bowls Victoria, and the subsequent creation of a single Bowls Section within Mulgrave Country Club, has required us to change some of the content in the website. We have taken the opportunity to make some changes to other content and to the overall appearance, and we hope you like the new look.

Some of the content relating to Season 2009/2010 (e.g. draws, teams, and results), are still on the website, and these will be progressively updated over the next two months as information becomes available for the next season.

Syd would prefer photos given to him as digital files on a USB Stick. (any size, dpi or format).
